

THE STYLES

by Lucie Lahoche

"Do one thing that scares you everyday"

I usually don't like to show myself. I prefer having my comfort zone where I am the only one that can judge what I look like and who I am. But because it's something that scares me, maybe I should overcome my fears.

I like photography, I like writing, I like music. I wanted to create something based on what I like the most. So here is my representation of Fine Line by Harry Styles, the album that makes me feel better everyday, the album that makes me like who I am.

I hope you like who you are <3

with a fan

L : We are here with Emmeline, one of Harry's fans. She's going to tell us what is so great about Harry ! Hello Emmeline, how are you today ?

E : I'm pretty good, happy to do this interview!

L : So, Emmeline, when and how did you discover Harry ?

E : Like everyone I first discovered Harry through 1D. So I guess I discovered him when I was about 10, in 2015.

L : Have you liked him since his beginnings ?

E : I will not lie, he wasn't always my favorite member of the band, I wanted to be different so I chose Niall as my favorite. I soon realized I was lying to myself and Harry was obviously the best one.

L : What is so great about him ?

E : There are so many things, I could write a whole essay about why I love him. I will name some things: what he stands for (like his message TPWK), he's so positive and genuine, I mean he's beautiful and he is just a funny and great person.

L : Have you ever met him in real life ?

E : No, I haven't met him. I hope I will get to someday, that would be a dream come true.

L : Can you give us three words to describe him ?

E : Three words to describe him : funny, kind, and genuine.

L : What is your favorite Harry's moment?

E : Again there's so many, I watch for hours compilations of him on Youtube. Something funny though was a video where a girl from the crowd told Harry she snuck vodka into the concert. Instead of being upset he asked if it was straight vodka, she said "no, gay" thinking he was asking about her sexuality, and just laughed. He is so chill and amazing with his fans.

L : What is your favorite song from his new album ?

E : I love all of them but my favorites are Fine Line, Falling, and To Be So Lonely.

L : What does his music make you feel ?

E : Each song brings out a different emotion depending on the tone, but in general happy and free. I'm not sure what it is but his songs just have a light and airy tone for me that just make me feel free. They also make me think of summer, like the perfect songs for a sunny day in the park.

L : Thank you Emmeline for this amazing interview ! I hope you'll have a great day.

E : You're welcome. Bye !
